

FREE CREDIT REPORT

A free copy of your credit report is available every 12 months from the 3 main credit reporting agencies: Equifax, Experian and TransUnion.

Your credit report has important information about your credit cards, loans, bank accounts and other financial information. It is smart to get your credit report on a regular basis to verify the information contained in it and to prevent identity theft.

To request a free copy of your credit report by mail, phone or internet, contact:
